AWAKEN US

"...but since they had stayed awake, they saw his glory" Luke 9: 28-36

Awaken us.

Awaken us in the fall of the snow, the drop of the rain,
the crash of the rolling thunder.

Awaken us in the song of the bird, the laugh of the child, the gentle hug from another.

Awaken us in the flick of the fish, the leap of the fox,
the lean of the weeping willow.

Awaken us in the sift of the breeze, the lift of the hymn, the gift of a bed and pillow.

Awaken us in the peal of the bell, the coffee's smell,
the feel of running water.

*Awaken us in the starlight's gleam, the hot meal's steam,
the flash of the diving otter.*

Awaken us in the eagle's flight, the mountain's height,
the joy of the talk with a friend.

*Awaken us in early morning calm, the medicine's balm,
the quiet of evening's end.*

Awaken us in the sip of wine, the warm sunshine,
the colour of leaves in autumn.

*Awaken us in the caring word, the truth that's heard,
the fragrance of spreading blossoms.*

Awaken us far, awaken us near,
awaken us with your story.

Awaken us from where we have come to be here, awakened to all your glory.

Offertory hymn O Lord, As You Were On Your Way

O Lord, as you were on your way to where you'd one day die,
You wanted time to rest and pray, to hear God's word to you that day.
You climbed a mountain high with three good friends close by.

So soon, the three became aware of such a wondrous sight.
Your face shone bright beyond compare, just like a glimpse of heaven there!
Your clothes were dazzling white; your glory came to light.

The Law, the Prophets guided you as you discerned God's will.
With Moses and Elijah, too, you spoke of God's great plan for you,
God's promise to fulfil one Friday on a hill.

Why could you not remain with them and there in glory stay?
God said, "This is my own dear Son! Now listen to him, everyone!"
And so you turned to say you'd go the harder way.

O Lord, how often we pursue success at any cost,
And yet we hear God's word anew, that we are called to follow you,
Who served the poor and lost and journeyed to the cross.
